

Current research shows students who participate in extra-curricular activities generally perform better academically.

So... get INVOLVED at TJC™

Across

2. TJC twirlers & color guard members who toss batons & spin flags at halftime
4. Happens before the game to show support & enthusiasm for your Apaches.
7. Members of this group enjoy the Japanese comic-book style of art
8. Made up of representatives from each campus organization
10. Their high kicks & dance routines have entertain halftime crowds
12. Methodist student organization
15. A smaller (& less sweaty) version of tennis
16. Group who consistently wins national awards for their debate skills
17. Annual magazine celebrating the artistic & literary achievements of TJC students
18. Plays great music & wears fancy hats while marching at halftime
19. The play is the thing, & the world is their stage
20. TJC's oldest student group, created the same day TJC was established in 1926

Down

1. International honor society (TJC's Alpha Omicron is one of its top chapters in the nation)
3. Annual event where we volunteer to help with service projects in the community
5. Our sports teams have earned TJC 61 national championships!
6. They helped you get acquainted with TJC during New Student Orientation
9. Let's go to the lake & wet a hook
11. A month-long celebration of our visual & performing arts programs
13. Our new TJC president who wants you to enjoy your time here & get involved!
14. A fun way to be a team player & participate in recreational sports