

Citation:

Main Ideas:

(What are the big ideas of the reading?)

Explanatory Information:

(How are the main ideas explained?)

Support:

(How are the main ideas supported? statistics, examples, testimonies, etc.)

Connect:

(How does this connect to other ideas/readings from the course, answer questions you have, or relate to personal experiences?)

When assigned a reading, you can use this four-columned chart--or create one yourself. The columns will help you create good notes you can use for review. Annotate the text first with these ideas in mind.

After reading a section or chapter, you should then fill in the chart.